

I do a lot of driving into NYC and rely on descriptive and informative up to date traffic and weather reports that XM Satelite Radio provides. If the local stations in my area would just improve their services and reports, I might be willing to part with my XM Traffic and Weather. But we all know that won't ever happen.